There will be nothing in that coming hinder our terrestrial visit. Our power and velocity of locomotion will have take us long to come here, however far off in God's universe heaven may be. The Bible declares that such visitation is going on now. "Are they not all sublimated! A new world born!" ministering spirits sent forth to minister to those who shall be heirs of salvation?" Surely the gates of heaven will not be bolted after the world is Edenized, so as to hinder the redeemed from descending for a tour of inspection and congratulation and triumph.

As we approach nearer and nearer we hear songs and laughter and hosannas, but not one groan of distress, not one sob of bereavement, not one clank of chain.

Alighted on the redeemed earth, we are first accosted by the spirit of the twenty-first century, who proposes to guide and show us all that we desire to see. Without his guidance we would lose our way, for the world is so much changed from the time when we lived in it. First of all he points out to us a group of abandoned buildings. We ask this spirit of the twenty-first century, "What are those structures whose walls are falling down and whose gates are rusted on the hinges?" Our escort tells us: "Those were once penitentiaries filled with offenders, but the crime of the world has died out. Theft and arson and fraud and violence have quitted the earth. People have all they want, and why should they appropriate the property of others, even if they had the desire? The marauders, the assassins, the buccaneers, the Herods, the Nana Sabibs, the ruffians, the bandits, are dead, or, transformed by the power of the Christian religion, are now upright and beneficent and useful. But I say to our escort: "Did all this merely happen so? Are all the good here spontaneously good? How did you get the old shipwrecked world affoat again, out of the breakers into the smooth seas?" Honesty Everywhere. The prices of the fabrics indicate a reasonable profit, and the firm in the counting room and the clerks at the counter and the draymen at the doorway and the errand boy on his rounds and the messenger who brings the mail and the men who open the store in the morning, as well as those who close it at night, all look as if they were satisfied and well treated. No swallowing up of small houses of merchandise by great houses. No ruinous underselling until those in the same line are bankrupt and then the prices lifted. No unnecessary assignment to defraud creditors. No overdrawing of accounts. No abscondings. No sharp practice. No snap judgments. But the manufacturer right in his dealings with the wholesaler, and the wholesaler with the customer. No purchasing of goods that will never be paid for. All right behind the counter. No repetition of what Solomon describes when he writes, "It is naught, it is naught, saith the buyer; but when he is gone his way, then he boasteth."

"But what is yonder row of buildings, majestic for architecture?' The spirit of the twenty-first century says, Those are our legislative halls and places of public trust, and, if you would like it. I will show you the political circles, the modes of preferment, the styles of election, the character of public men in this century." "Thank you," I reply. "I can easily understand how gospelization would improve individual life and social life and commercial life, but I would like to see what it can do for pelitical life." "Let me tell you," says the spirit of the twenty-first century, "that I have ago-the nineteenth century, in which you lived here-but the low political caucus has gone from the face of the earth, and the stuffed ballot box, and the bribery by money and by promise of office, and the jobs got through legislatures and congresses by lobbyists. The last corrupt judge of election was buried 50 years ago, the preacher officiating at the obsequies taking for his text Proverbs x, 7, 'The name of the wicked shall rot,' or Jeremiah xxii, 19, He shall be buried with the burial of first century settled in five minutes, was in the beginning, is now and ever an ass, drawn and cast forth beyond the gates of Jerusalem."

End of Infidelity. As in company with our escort we pass down from the heights on which these buildings stand, I see a dismounted cannon planted on the side of the hill, and I go to examine it, and I have staid long enough on this terresread the inscription, cut in letters of trial visitation to see that all the best bronze: "This is the last gun that was fired in the last battle of the last war that will ever be fought. Presented by the last regiment of war just before disbanding. Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will to men." Then I look up, and our escort says: "Do you see that large structure on our right? That was a fortress, but now it is a college, and instead of guns aiming out of the portholes are looking the students of a higher literature and a wiser science and a grander civilization than the world ever before imagined. プスクスとうないとうないとうというというというとくとうか THE WORST FEMALE COMPLAINT.

More women are suffering from leucorrhœa, or "whites", than from any other disease. If you have leucorrhœa you ought to cure it. You can stop the discharge and pain and feel like a new woman. You are missing half the pleasure of life and you have got so used to it that you don't know it. The first thing spoken of by almost everyone cured by Wine of Cardui is how much they enjoy living—how different things seem. There is nothing which will drain the sap and life of a woman quicker than leucor-rhoea—and there is nothing that will put it back quicker than Wine of Cardui. It stops the debilitating drains and tones up the whole system. It is unequaled as a womanly tonic. Taken with Black-Draught it will relieve any case of female trouble.

If you wish advice, write to the "Ladies' Advisory Department," of The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., but above all, try Wine of Cardui.

Gowen, I. T., March 22, 1899. I have been using Wine of Cardui for some time, and think it is the greatest medicine in the world for ladies. I was down three years from the "whites". I could hardly do my work, I was in such a bad condition. I tried all the doctors in town and nearly all the medicine the druggist had for women, but I got so bad I had to take to my bed. Finally a lady friend said Wine of Cardui would cure me, and my husband got me a bottle. It gave me so much relief I have never been without it since. I am well as I ever was in my life. I will do everything I can to get women to take Wine of Cardui. Mrs. F. M. DILLE.

All Druggists sell $1.00 Bottles of Wine of Cardui.
